

Remote Conferencing

Confirmed Positive Test for COVID 19 or Direct Exposure

SCHOOL PERSONNEL RECEIVING REPORT: Notify Campus Nurse

CAMPUS

*Nurse enters student name in Google Form
(Student and parent receive email generated from Google form within 24 hours with Remote Conferencing details)

*Home campus teacher will mark absent

DISTRICT ADMIN

*Mark students who attend Remote Conferencing "B" in Skyward

*Monitor number of days student attends Remote Conferencing

Remote Conferencing

Remoting Conferencing will be provided to student for assistance navigating through curriculum

*Email will be sent to student/parent within 24 hours of receiving COVID report

Student Expectations

*Remote Conferencing Class
K-5 9:00am-11:00am
6-12 9:00am-1:00pm

*Attendance taken at 9:15

*Complete daily work in Classroom Canvas courses

*Participate in Zoom by keeping camera on at all times

*Make-up learning checks and tests upon returning to school

*Communicate with Remote Conferencing staff when not attending Zoom

No Flex option available

Remote Conferencing Teacher (RCT)

*Teachers assigned by

- K-2
- 3-4
- 5-6
- 7-8
- 9-12

*Mark students on Zoom at 9:15 present in Skyward

*Helps students navigate through their classroom Canvas courses

*Provide support as needed

*Select appropriate activities based on scope and sequence

No grades will be given by RCT

Classroom Teacher

When student is attending Remote Conferencing:

*Check for completed Classroom Canvas assignments (if applicable)

*Communicate with Remote Conferencing Team if needed

When student returns to class:

*Conference with student to determine appropriate interventions needed

*Allow time to make-up assignments based on district guidelines

Remote Conferencing Team

Stacy Joseph - Director of Virtual Learning, Ed. Tech, and Media Services
Donna Selman - Coordinator of Virtual Learning and Ed. Tech
Sherrie Watson - Coordinator of Education Technology and Development
Holly Malone - Lead Remote Conferencing Teacher

Please refer Remote Conferencing questions to Donna Selman at djselman@forneyisd.net.